A Pleasure for the Wife

The woman who does her own baking should enjoy it immensely. Baking is really a pleasure and the source of much satisfaction if the housewife has much confidence in her results. But the excellency of her baking depends almost entirely on the quality of the ingredients which she uses.

"Yale Pride" and "Belle" are milled and blended especially for home use. They are "satisfactory flours" and the wife is sure of inviting bread and pastries when she uses them.

A BEACON OF HOPE!

WHEN the storm rages and the cruel sea roars as though in ghoulish glee the lighthouse is truly a beacon of hope. And when the storm of financial trouble beats upon you and the horrible pit of disaster yawns before you a bank account is your SUREST beacon of help. You know this. You have heard it a thousand times. But are you really saving all you OUGHT to save? Are you actually laying a solid foundation for your beacon of hope? THINK THIS OVER.

A GRAND DAY

Decoration Day Was Observed In Yale By Immense Crowds

Given perfect weather, a flag decked city, a good band and the occasion for it all and Yale and the surrounding country rose nobly to the demands of Decoration day, the day we so fittingly observe in honor of those who died for our country might live.

At an early hour the streets were thronged with vehicles and people and at ten o'clock the line of march was formed headed by the Clifford band in uniform.

Two by two the school children, with flags and flowers, followed, each grade with its teacher. Then came the Sons of Veterans and the Boy Scouts in uniform, followed by automobiles with the old soldiers and others with citizens and guests. Then many carriages. The line was long, about thirty autos being used.

It was a stirring scene to watch the procession move slowly toward the cemetery where the usual ceremonies were performed and graves decorated with flags and flowers.

After dinner a large concourse of people assembled in Central hall, the room being closely packed by the time the program was opened. The stage was hung with flags and a picture of Lincoln occupied a prominent position. Superintendent N. J. Drouin acted as chairman and introduced the numbers.

A poem by Mrs. G. A. Spencer proved an attractive addition. A reading by J. E. Ryan was appreciated by those present. Recitations by Helen Palmer, Grace Menzies, Pauline Fead and a song and drill by eight girls were all good.

It was understood that Judge Tappan would not be able to give the address of the day but being in town and in the hall, he was persuaded to make a few remarks, such as always, found the hearts of the people.

Rev. Bragg, although given a very short time to prepare a speech, proved his worth in the very splendid manner with which he handled this old but ever new subject of the civil war.

After the exercises at the hall were over many attended the Emmett-Yale ball game on the home diamond, many were attracted to the dog and pony show in the park, many were driving and many took the opportunity to visit with old friends whom perhaps they meet only this one day in the year.

In all its phases the day was an enjoyable one, the tinge of sadness always overshadowing the occasion becoming more and more reminiscent as the years go by. However, this Memorial day came and passed with much more than its usual significance. The fact that over the waters more than half the world is fighting mad, that a war is being waged that is causing the most terrible slaughter of human beings, is now the one thing uppermost in our minds and that we are citizens of the good old United States and under the protection of the stars and stripes should cause us to give heartfelt thanks to God.

NOTES

It was an ideal day. Generally speaking, it rains on Decoration day.

It is estimated that there were 5000 people in Yale.

The towns round about us were well represented in Yale Monday.

The ball game was a close and interesting feature.

The committee in charge of the Decoration day doings feel very grateful to Rev. Bragg for the excellent manner in which he responded to the hurry up call for an address, also to Frank Phillips for the free use of the hall, to the owners of automobiles who so willingly lent the use of them, to the flower committee who furnished the flowers and to all who assisted in any way toward making the day the success that it was.

BLOWN TO PIECES

Joseph Utter of Melvin Instantly Killed By Accidental Discharge of Dynamite While Blowing Up Stumps.

On Sunday last while Joseph Utter, who lives three-fourths of a mile west and one-fourth mile north of Melvin, was going across the back part of his farm he was horrified when he found a human foot and some of the fleshy part of a leg lying on the ground. He immediately summoned other members of the family and a search of the field was made. Portions of the body were found scattered over an area of nearly three acres.

It seems that two weeks ago last Monday Mr. Utter sent his son, Joseph to Melvin after some dynamite with which to blow up some stumps. The young man took the six sticks out the next morning and it is supposed that he lighted the fuse, and when it failed to go off he returned to see what was the matter, arriving at the stump just as the whole six sticks exploded.

While it might appear strange that the young man was not missed for nearly two weeks, his father informs us that he had not been staying at home much, sometimes staying away three or four weeks without letting his father know of his whereabouts. He worked at the stonemason trade and had a job near Peck, where the family supposed he had gone.

Coroner Cochran of Peck was called and an inquest held, the verdict being that the cause of death was purely accidental.

The young man was 27 years of age and leaves parents and three brothers also a large circle of friends all of whom are shocked to learn of his untimely death.

Short funeral services were held at the home Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Schlicher, and the burial was made in the Melvin cemetery.

A Dastardly Deed.

While Jas. Wallace, ex-mayor of the city, was on his way home last Friday evening at about 8:30 o'clock, and when near the Pere Marquette railway tracks, Edward Mullane jumped out from the shadow of Youngs' livery building and pounced upon him, giving him a heavy blow in the face, knocking him to the ground unconscious.

Morgan Boyce happened along at the time and proved a Good Samaritan by pulling young Mullane off from Mr. Wallace. Mullane disappeared, but an officer caught and arrested him, and he was taken before Justice Farley and on his pleading guilty to the charge was sentenced to thirty days in the county jail. Deputy sheriff Cavanaugh took him to Port Huron the next morning.

A bad gash was cut under Mr. Wallace's eye which must have been caused from a ring or some other hard substance on the hand of young Mullane when he struck the blow.

A Mistake Made By Many

When you suffer pains and aches by day and sleep disturbing bladder weakness by night, feel tired, nervous and run down, the kidneys and bladder should be restored to healthy, strong and regular action. It is a mistake to postpone treatment. Foley Kidney Pills put the kidneys in sound, healthy condition and keep them active and strong. Herb T. Hennessy, Adv.

Our Boys Won a Real Fast Game at City Park Monday Afternoon.

Decoration Day without a ball game would be something out of the ordinary and lovers of a good, clean exhibition of this, the National game, were more than satisfied with what was dished up on Monday at City Park. Emmett took up a collection of the best players

LaForge Made a Home Run

In the neighboring towns and came up with the expectations of lifting the scalp of the High School team, but they failed to put it over the youngsters and had to be satisfied with the little end of a four to five count.

There never was a nicer day for a game, and the crowd was large and enthusiastic. There were enough sensational plays to keep the crowd on the anxious seat all the time, and although the visitors didn't have a ghost of a show to win, there were a few times during the contest that Yale's betting money was real scarce.

The boys from the south are a good natured lot of players and if it had been any other team but the Yale boys we would have "rooted" right out loud for them. Some of their boys were young players, but most of them have faced the pan in Yale for many years.

For instance:—Nigh onto sixty years ago, when the North and South had their little old civil war there was a fellow named LaForge who used to carry cannon balls around to feed the big guns on. After the war was over he came north and settled on a farm near Emmett. He is still in the game and held down

Dog and Pony Show

The Perrine Dog and Pony Show, under the management of Mrs. Grace Perrine, gave two fine entertainments in their tents on the city park grounds Monday afternoon and evening. Large crowds attended both entertainments. The dogs and ponies are, educated almost to the point of human intelligence and do most anything but talk. Every thing with the show is neat and up-to-date, and every act won merited applause. The band furnished splendid music.
